Music and Art—Concert Events—Exhibitions

Program Notes
BY JOHN ROSENFIELD JR.

The 1934-35 Orchestra... The Dallas Symphony Orchestra will have a playing season of approximately forty-eight weeks to the last concert of the season, scheduled for the week of May 1st at Tusher Auditorium. This program is scheduled to begin during the March period and will be comprised of approximately thirty-four concerts in all, including the usual fall, winter, and spring series. The orchestra is under the direction of Mr. T. J. S. Wilson, and it is expected that the orchestra will demonstrate the same high level of performance as in past years.

New Ballet Russe Reaps What Great Diaghileff Sowed

Monte Carlo Sets Foot on Continental Tour

BY RICHARD S. HEPPELMAN, NEW YORK, Oct. 27—The New Ballet Russe at first appeared in Paris as a small group of Russian artists who had been given the opportunity of presenting their work in the city. Since then, however, they have grown in size and popularity, and their performances have been well received by audiences throughout Europe. This year, the group has embarked on a tour of the United States and will continue its journey to Australia and New Zealand. The performances will feature ballets by renowned choreographers such as Michel Fokine and Marius Petipa.

"Queen Charlotte" . . . By Sir William Beechey

"The portrait of Queen Charlotte by Sir William Beechey will be on view at the High Museum of Art in Atlanta. The exhibition will provide an opportunity to view this masterpiece, considered one of the greatest portraits of the queen, alongside other works from the artist's career.

Rest of the Country
BY JERRY BYRATERS

Surrealism vs. The Soil... The Georgia International Art Exhibition now in view at the Georgia Museum of Art is an exhibition that celebrates the diversity of Surrealist art from around the world. The exhibition includes works by famous artists such as Salvador Dalí, René Magritte, and Max Ernst, as well as lesser-known artists. The exhibition is open to the public and offers a unique opportunity to explore the development of Surrealism as an art movement.

HURRAH! HURRAY! I'VE LOST 40 POUNDS

I didn't diet—I didn't exercise—but was on a diet with my system for losing. LOOK SLENDER—FEEL FINE

Wannemaker Exhibit... Following the exhibit at the Park Art Center in New York and Philadelphia, Wannemaker's recent solo show at the Museum of Modern Art is being hailed as a masterpiece. The exhibition features works by the artist, including paintings and sculptures that demonstrate his mastery of the modernist style.

Artists Announced... Among the artists who will be featured in the upcoming exhibition at the Museum of Modern Art are Pablo Picasso, Jackson Pollock, and Andy Warhol. The exhibition will showcase the evolution of modernist art, from the early 20th century to the present day.

Beechey in Dallas
BY FRANCES FOLSON

Portrait Painter to Queen... The portrait of Queen Charlotte by Sir William Beechey will be on view at the High Museum of Art in Atlanta. The exhibition will provide an opportunity to view this masterpiece, considered one of the greatest portraits of the queen, alongside other works from the artist's career.

Beechey in Dallas
BY FRANCES FOLSON

Portrait Painter to Queen... The portrait of Queen Charlotte by Sir William Beechey will be on view at the High Museum of Art in Atlanta. The exhibition will provide an opportunity to view this masterpiece, considered one of the greatest portraits of the queen, alongside other works from the artist's career.

American Works in Full Diversity Shown in Gotham
This and Other Shows Enliven New York Art

BY MARY FRANKLIN, NEW YORK, Oct. 28—A new exhibition at the Whitney Museum of American Art is showcasing American works in full diversity. The exhibition includes works by well-known artists such as Jackson Pollock and Jasper Johns, as well as lesser-known artists. The exhibition is open to the public and offers a unique opportunity to explore the diversity of American art.