

AN AUCTION of BOOKS,

Consisting of miscellaneous entertainment; with variety in the arts and sciences; will commence To-morrow Evening, and continue selling every evening this week, by

Robert Bell, Bookseller & Auctionier;

I*N the large new store belonging to Mr. Peter Clapper, the lower end of Maiden Lane, opposite the Fly-Market. Catalogues of the books, may be had at the time and place of sale. Hours of sale each evening from 5 till 8 o'clock. N. B. On Thursday, at 11 o'clock, in said store will begin the sale by auction of a very valuable and large collection of modern maps, plans, charts, &c. &c. consisting of maps of North-America, of the middle British colonies, of Great-Britain, of Ireland, of Virginia, &c. Plans of the river St. Lawrence, of Quebec, of the town and harbour of Cape-Francois, &c. &c. Charts of South-America, &c. Also some fine sets of borders on copper-plates, &c.*