

The U. S. ship Levant, Hiram Paulding, Esq. Commander, arrived in Hampton Roads from New York on Thursday night last, bound to Pensacola, and came up yesterday afternoon, and anchored off the Navy Hospital. The customary salutes were exchanged.

The following is a list of her Officers:

Hiram Paulding, Esq. Commander; Henry W. Morris, 1st Lieutenant; George Hurst 2d do.; Charles Green, 3d do.; Benjamin Franklin Hart, Purser; William Fairlie Patton, Surgeon; J. J. Abernethy, Assistant do.; Frederick W. Moores, Sailing Master; Eli W. Stull, Acting do.; Stephen Decatur, Richard C. Cogdell, Passed Midshipmen; Midshipmen, John P. M'Farland; W. A. Wayne, John Guest, John W. A. Nicolson, J. Withers Reed, Charles S. Cooper, John H. M'Intosh Madison, Richard T. Renshaw, James H. Moore, Andrew Bryson, Frederick Stenson, Andrew W. Drake, Edward C. Kennedy, Chas. M. Morris, E. Z. C. Judson, H. H. Harrison, John K. Duer, Hamilton Godman, John C. Creighton, D. Ammen, W. S. Weed, Lyman B. Law; Philip H. Van Antwerp, Captain's Clerk; W. R. Hall, Acting Boatswain; George D. Blackford, Acting Sailmaker, Moses Wilson, Acting carpenter; Jacob Carpenter gunner.

Norfolk Beacon, 5th inst.

---

Let youth be aware that the first impressions which the world takes of us seldom or never wear away.