

ANDREW

WILL stand the ensuing season at my stable, in the county of Dinwiddie, 30 miles South of Petersburg, and immediately on the stage road from thence to Brunswick Court House. He will be let to mares at $50 the season, payable on 1st August next, when it will end. $80 insurance, payable when the mare is known to be in foal or exchanged—with one dollar cash to the groom for each mare. Arrangements are made for mares sent to the horse, having extensive and excellent pastures, well watered and divided—besides plenty of stable room to protect them in bad weather; so that mares with young colts can be kept separate. They can also be fed according to order, or without limit, with grain, at 25 cents a day.—Servants sent with mares boarded gratis. The greatest care will be taken to prevent accidents, but no responsibility for any that may happen.

EDWARD JOHNSON.

Dinwiddie, 8th February, 1834.

DESCRIPTION AND PERFORMANCES.—Andrew is a beautiful dark che-nut, full 5 feet 3 inches high; a most splendid animal; a truly formidable racer, with the boldest and most energetic action. As to style, beauty and appearance, he is universally admired. There was indeed, while on the turf and in order, but one opinion about him, and that was, Andrew against the field. I purchased him late in the fall of 1831, and trained and run him spring and fall of 1832. In the spring at Fairfield, he won the Proprietor's Purse, 2 mile heats, at 3 heats, running the 2nd heat in 3m. 48s., beating Betsey Hare, Gen. Brook, and 4 others. The next week at Tree Hill, he won the Jockey Club Purse, 4 mile heats, $1000, in 2 heats, beating, with the greatest ease, Sally Hornet, Molly Howell, Sparrowhawk, Mohawk, and two others. The next week at Baltimore, he won the great 4 mile race, $2500, in two heats, beating as hard as the boy could pull him, Sparrowhawk, Bachelor, and one other. The next week he won at Norfolk, the Jockey Club Purse, 4 mile heats, $700, in two heats, beating Collier, Hugo, Molly Howell, and two others, in 7 m. 59 s. the 1st heat, and the unheard-of time of 7 m. 40 s. the second heat, being the best second heat ever run in the U. States. Fall 1832, at Broad Rock, he won the Jockey Club purse, 3 mile heats, beating at 2 heats, with the greatest ease, Sally Hornet, Eliza Wharton, Betsey Graves, and two others. At New Market, he won the Jockey Club purse, 4 mile heats, beating in two heats Red Rover, ending the race in a walk. The week after he went to Baltimore, and won with the utmost ease the great stakes, 4 mile heats, $3000, in two heats, beating Black Maria, Jackson and Malcolm. He immediately returned to Fairfield, and started for the Jockey Club purse, 4 mile heats, 8 starting, when he completely broke down, and was not able to stand up for 39 hours—which race was won at 4 heats by Goliath.
