

JAMES BISHOP

RESPECTIVELY informs the ladies and gentlemen of Salem and its vicinity, that he has taken a convenient room in the Central Building, Market-street, where he intends exhibiting a collection of COMPOSITIVE—consisting of about as large as life—together with a new constructed ORGAN, playing a variety of tunes, accompanied by the sixteen sister states performing upon a chime of bells—From the quality of the above collection Mr Bishop presumes they will give general satisfaction to those who may think proper to honor him with their attention.

The Museum will be open every day, (Sundays excepted) from 9 o'clock in the morning until 9 in the evening—Price of admittance, grown persons 25 cents, children half price.

N. B.—Among the above collection may be seen the likeness of ELIZA WHARTON. Sept. 5.
