

SOCIETY

EDITED BY MRS. W. L. LARSH—Phone 1682

In order to insure proper insertion all items of a personal and social nature should reach Mrs. Larsh by 9:30 a. m.

Girls to Attend Y. W. Conference

A quartette of enthusiastic Y. W. girls will leave Friday morning for Estes Park, to attend the conference which takes place there from August 6 to 16. Miss Floy Swalm, Miss Capitola Allison, Miss Blanche Miller and Mrs. Mabel Peterson of the Business Women's club will represent the Cheyenne Y. W. at this important meeting. The conference is called the Rocky Mountain City conference of the Y. W. C. A. Many prominent speakers will be heard from not only New York City but from Europe, as well.

New People Welcomed

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Havice recently arrived in Cheyenne from Independence, Kas. They have purchased the handsome property owned by the P. T. Johns, located at 2504 Carey avenue. The family consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Havice, a charming daughter, Miss Dorothy and a young son, Robert, is already comfortably settled in their new quarters. Mr. Havice is connected with the Kasomong Oil company of which organization he is the secretary-treasurer.

Week-End in Estes Park

Dr. and Mrs. C. Y. Beard motored to Estes park for the week end. The delightful trip was made as a courtesy to their house guests Mr. and Mrs. William Kelso, Miss Ruth Kelso and Mr. Wells of Grand Island, Neb.

Guest at Theater Party

Mrs. Ernest Wellnitz entertained Tuesday evening at a theater party in honor of Mrs. Damon Clark of Lead, S. D. The ladies were guests at the Atlas, and after the show, enjoyed refreshments in a near-by confectionery. Guests of Mrs. Wellnitz on this occasion included Mrs. Clark, the honoree, Mrs. Schoolbraid and Mrs. O. M. Lloyd.

Mrs. Leard to Visit Here

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. King received a telegram Tuesday from their daughter, Mrs. E. W. Leard of Douglas, Ariz., stating that she would arrive in Cheyenne on Saturday, for a visit of several weeks. Mrs. Leard was Miss Georgia Hirst before her marriage at Easter time and since the wedding has made her home in Douglas. Captain Leard has been ordered on a hike with his company, which will occupy about two months, and during his absence from Douglas, Mrs. Leard will visit relatives and friends in Cheyenne.

By Mrs. Lloyd

Mrs. Damon Clark of Lead, S. D., the honor guest at a beautifully arranged Kensington, given Tuesday afternoon, by Mrs. O. M. Lloyd at the

FOR SALE hostess on Pershing well improved Cheyenne, was assisted by Mrs. J. Laycock, in caring for the Cheyenne. Tests. Nasturtiums

FOR SALE the pretty home on wheels, bles at which a Lovejoy Franks served at five. 103 Wemyar assisted phone 378W. afternoon. Those

FOR SALE had the pleasure ing car. First claClark, included mountable wheels Mrs. Ernest ever offered at day, Mrs. Ralph tenth street bert G. Porter, ls, Mrs. Fred

FOR SALE Stubblefield, room house, modman, Mrs. W. full lot East Sixtson, mother of block, $1,000 Mrs. W. K. My-Phone 643W.

FOR SALE touring car. Corner Guests new, fully equip Rapid City, was most half price or at a dinner, don't need this Mr. and Mrs. at 6 o'clock on

FOR SALE The honoree is Mrs. Sylvia city, and a ne-Garage, poultry, hostess. Summer den plot anded the handsome-berhood. Sble at which plates leaving the cr. Jacobs, the guest ful home for. and Mrs. Ralph 1184J. Alus Allenstein, Ab-

FOR SALE Mrs. Wellnitz, A-Reavill Nuptials

FOR SALE Adding of Harry Harri-son of Mr. and Mrs. Revick formerly of Chey- now of Casper, and Miss Margery Reavill daughter and Mrs. Edgar Allen Rea- Douglas, Wyo., and Den- took place at 10 o'clock Sun- morning, August 1, in St. abbas Episcopal church, Den- The ceremony was perform- by Rev. Charles Bradley, as-stant rector of the parish and as witnessed by friends and relatives of the happy couple.

FOR SALE The bride was attended by Mrs. M. R. Stockton as matron of honor and by Miss Margaret Knit- of Douglas as bridesmaid. R. B. Reavill, brother of the bride was Mr. Stevick's best man.

FOR SALE Both bride and groom are popular young Wyomingites.

FOR SALE The bridegroom is a Cheyenne youth, who served in France with the A. E. F. and is connected with one of the large oil concerns operating in Casper.

FOR SALE The former Miss Reavill is a young woman of unusual charm, born and reared in Douglas, but who removed not long ago to Denver with her parents.

FOR SALE After a short honeymoon trip Mr. and Mrs. Stevick will go to Casper to make their home

Guests From Butte, Entertained at Dinner

Complimentary to Mr. and Mrs. J. Stanley Woolcox of Butte, Mont., Mrs. B. H. Knight entertained Thursday evening at dinner. The menu was served at 6:30 with covers laid for ten at the charmingly appointed table.

Entertain House Party

Dr. C. Y. Beard and Mrs. Beard were hosts to out of town friends who made up a house party over the week end. Guests of the Beards included Mr. and Mrs. William Kelso, Miss Ruth Kelso, and Oscar Wells, all of Grand Island, Neb. The party arrived Saturday, leaving for Grand Island on Tuesday afternoon.

Daughter of Former Cheyenneites Visiting Here

Miss Virginia Finlaysen of Omaha is the house guest of the U. A. Buckinghams. The visitor is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Finlaysen, who made their home in Cheyenne for many years prior to removal to Omaha where the former holds a high position with the Union Pacific. Mr. Finlaysen accompanied Miss Virginia to Cheyenne leaving several days ago on a trip west. Mrs. Finlaysen has a large circle of friends in town who will be happy to hear of the visit paid by her daughter the first since her departure ten years ago.

By Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy

About fifty members of the younger society set of Cheyenne were charmingly entertained last Tuesday evening at the Country club by Mr. and Mrs. T. Blake Kennedy. The affair was a dancing party given complimentary to cousins of the hostess, the Misses Gracia and Genevieve Hittle of Prairie City, Ill., who are spending a season in the city house guests of their aunt, Mrs. Frank C. Lyons.

Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Boyd assisted Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy during the evening. A pause was made soon after 11, for the enjoyment of ices and cakes. The dance was informal but nevertheless one of the smartest events of the gay summer season.

Popular Clergyman to Wed

A clipping taken from the Sioux City Daily Tribune will be of interest to many Cheyenne people. Mr. Philbrook is well known in town, he having frequently occupied the pulpit of St. Mark's Episcopal church, before receiving the call to Rawlins. The item reads:

Dr. and Mrs. James F. Taylor announce the engagement of their daughter Miss Gwendolyn Taylor to Rev. Rowland F. Philbrook of Rawlins, Wyo. Mr. Rev. Philbrook is the son of Dr. and Mrs. B. F. Philbrook of Sioux City. Announcement of the engagement was made known today at a luncheon given in the Taylor home, at which Miss Taylor presided. The marriage will take place at St. Thomas Episcopal church on Wednesday morning, August 18 at 9 o'clock.

Distinguished Y. W. Worker is Greeted at Train

Miss Sarah Lyons, a national worker in the Young Woman's Christian association, was met at the train Tuesday afternoon by Miss Ethel Adams of our local organization. Miss Lyon but recently returned from an international Y. W. conference, in Berne Switzerland, and was enroute to California to attend a convention which begins on Friday of the present week. Miss Lyon was present last summer in Hollister Missouri, at a Y. W. meeting to which Miss Kate Taylor of Cheyenne, was delegate, and she pleasantly recalled her friendship with Miss Taylor. Her stay in Cheyenne was limited to a few minutes owing to the necessity of her reaching California by Thursday night.

Personal

Miss Vera Gough of North Platte arrived Tuesday afternoon for a visit at the home of her friend, Miss Gl... Piper.

Mrs. Otto K. Snyder is in the city from Lewiston, Colo. She will remain for several weeks, the guest of her mother, Mrs. W. W. Crook.

Having concluded a pleasant visit as guest of her sister, Miss Ethel Adams, secretary of the Y. W., Miss Edith Adams departed Tuesday morning for her home in Denver.

Miss Ethel Adams, general secretary of the Y. W., is planning to leave at the end of the week for Estes park to attend the City Workers conference which begins there on the sixth.

Miss Dorothy Havice is entertaining house guests at the home of her parents on Carey avenue. They are Miss Phyllis Bundick and Miss Dyda Houston, popular society girls of Independence, Kas.

Mrs. Van Gullford has returned to her ranch home at Goldsmith, after a short visit in town. She was house guest of Mrs. O. C. Brownlee.

Mrs. Luderick B. Sheldon formerly of Cheyenne, but for the last three years a resident of Fair Haven, Vt., arrived in town on Monday evening. She is for the present, the guest of her friend

Miss Eunice Anderson. Mrs. Sheldon's friends extend her a glad welcome.

Miss Lyda Houston who has been the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Havice and their daughter, Miss Dorothy, for several days will leave Thursday morning for Estes park. She will spend some time in the park before returning to her home in Independence, Kas.

Mrs. S. S. Pearlstone of Detroit, Mich., who was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Joseph Wasserman, during Frontier week left on Friday afternoon for Denver to remain a fortnight. She will visit her brother Arthur Oberfelder. Mrs. Pearlstone and little daughter Lois, will return to Cheyenne at the conclusion of the Denver visit for a further stay in the Wasserman home.

At the conclusion of a month's visit in the home of Mrs. B. H. Knight, Mr. and Mrs. J. Stanley Woodcox left Monday night for their home in Butte, Montana. They were guests of Mrs. Knight and of Mr. and Mrs. J. Stanley Woodcox, Jr., the latter being a niece of Mrs. Knight. Mr. and Mrs. Woodcox received numerous social attentions while here, and they attended the daily show at Frontier park last week, declaring that it was the best ever.

Clubs

An important meeting of the Knights and Ladies of Security will be held in K. C. hall tonight.

St. Mark's guild will meet at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon in the Parish house. Mrs. David Nimmo, president, will be in charge. This is the first meeting presided over by Mrs. Nimmo since her return from Europe. Mrs. Luke Voorhees and Mrs. John Kay will serve as hostesses.

The Altar and Rosary society will meet in K. C. hall at 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon. This will be the meeting for the annual election of officers and the transaction of much important business; and a large attendance is earnestly requested. Mrs. Charles Wunnicke, Mrs. Dahlstrom and Mrs. T. B. McDonough will be the hostesses of the afternoon. A pleasing musical program has been arranged.