

WHERE ALLIED ARMIES ARE TAKING OFFENSIVE

Here is a general map of the Allied drive. 1—British ships reported in action along the Belgian coast. 2—Albert, where British and French armies joined and scene of bloodiest struggles. The Allies, driving toward Peronne, drove the Germans from Laboisselle, Fricourt, Contal, Maison and Montauban, and took Compienne where many German dead were found.

The distance from the Somme River to the sea is 110 miles.
