THE EVENING STAR.

WASHINGTON.

THURSDAY February 25, 1869.

THE EKVENING STAR has a regular and high order subscription list" and the best of advertisements in the world. For many years the Star has been a leader in the field of public opinion, and its influence is felt throughout the country. The Star is a daily newspaper, published every day except Sunday, and is distributed throughout the District of Columbia and the surrounding counties.

The editor of the Star is a graduate of the University of Virginia, and is a man of wide experience in journalism. He has been a correspondent for many years, and is well known for his ability to write on any subject. His articles are clear, concise, and to the point, and are always well received by his readers.

The Star is published by a company of men who are all men of ability and experience in the field of journalism. They are all well known in the business, and are all men of high standing in the community. Their policy is one of honesty and integrity, and they are always willing to do their best to serve their country and their readers.

The Star is published every day except Sunday, and is distributed throughout the District of Columbia and the surrounding counties. It is printed on fine paper, and is well bound. It is a handsome newspaper, and is always well received by its readers.

The Star is a leader in the field of public opinion, and its influence is felt throughout the country. Its articles are clear, concise, and to the point, and are always well received by its readers. Its policy is one of honesty and integrity, and it is always willing to do its best to serve its country and its readers.