Nanking Hopes Japanese
Withdraw From China

By G. V. AYERS M.D.

Nanking, Oct. 20. - The 'Nanking Daily News' this morning declared the Japanese high command had ordered a complete evacuation of the Chinese capital.

Nanking hopes the withdrawal of the Japanese forces will be speeded up so that the Chinese may get back to their homes.

The Japanese forces are reported to have withdrawn from the city of Changsha, north of Nanking, and are now on their way to the south of the country.

The Chinese government has ordered all military personnel to return to their homes and work in their respective provinces.

President Favors R. R. Loans But Not New Public Works

(Continued from First Page)

The President's statement on the subject of the railroad loans is expected to be made by the President himself.

The proposed loans would be for the purpose of building new public works, including new railroads and highways.

Wage-Hour Bill Lost

As House Coalition Votes to Recommit

(Continued from First Page)

The wage-hour bill, introduced by Representative John Doe, was defeated by a vote of 150 to 100.

The bill was designed to establish a minimum wage of $2.00 per hour for all workers in the United States.

The bill was opposed by the National Association of Manufacturers, which argued that it would increase costs for employers and lead to higher prices for consumers.

Chairman of the House, John Smith, stated that the bill would be recommitted to the committee on labor for further study.

The committee on labor has been asked to consider the bill and report back to the House by December 1.

The bill was introduced by Representative John Doe, who represents the 12th congressional district of California.

The bill would establish a minimum wage of $2.00 per hour for all workers in the United States, regardless of age or gender.

The bill was opposed by the National Association of Manufacturers, which argued that it would increase costs for employers and lead to higher prices for consumers.

Chairman of the House, John Smith, stated that the bill would be recommitted to the committee on labor for further study.

The committee on labor has been asked to consider the bill and report back to the House by December 1.

The bill was introduced by Representative John Doe, who represents the 12th congressional district of California.

The bill would establish a minimum wage of $2.00 per hour for all workers in the United States, regardless of age or gender.