

PARIS ACTRESS SENSATION IN GOTHAM

Theda Bara.

Few actresses of recent years have made such a sensation as has beautiful Theda Bara by her almost blood-chilling performance of "The Vampire," a version of one of Kipling's famous poems. Miss Bara was brought to America from the Paris "house of thrills," the famous Theatre Antoine, to play this role. She was the leading lady formerly of the well known Gymnase of Paris, where she became famed for her marvelous interpretations of extremely difficult roles.
