

World Newspaper Archive

Created with the Center for Research Libraries, a leading newspaper repository

Quick Facts

Features searchable digital replicas of historical newspapers published in Africa, Latin America, and South Asia

Includes 19th- and 20th-century newspapers published in English and a variety of other languages

Offers fresh perspective across wide-ranging academic disciplines on local, national and global issues

“...of huge value to historical researchers in many different fields of the humanities and social sciences.”

—Kátia Couto, Department of History, Universidade Federal do Amazonas-UFAM

Overview

Representing the largest searchable collection of historical newspapers from Africa, Latin America and South Asia, the World Newspaper Archive offers opportunities for fresh insight across wide-ranging disciplines. This expanding online resource was created in partnership between Readex and the Center for Research Libraries—one of the world’s most important newspaper repositories. Providing exact digital replicas of newspapers published in English and a variety of other languages, the World Newspaper Archive chronicles the history and politics of diverse peoples and cultures during the 19th and early 20th centuries. Through eyewitness reporting, editorials, legislative updates, letters, poetry, advertisements, matrimony and death notices and more, these newspapers offer new perspectives on local, national and global issues as well as on daily life around the world.

African Newspapers, Series 1 and 2, 1800-1925

This groundbreaking collection offers unmatched coverage of the people, issues and events that shaped the continent during the 19th and early 20th centuries. Featuring titles from Algeria to Angola, Zambia to Zimbabwe, this unique resource chronicles the evolution of Africa through eyewitness reporting, editorials, legislative information, letters, poetry, advertisements, obituaries and other items. Together, African Newspapers, Series 1 and 2, provide news and perspectives from a wide range of counties and cultures.

Latin American Newspapers, Series 1 and 2, 1805-1922

Available in two online series, Latin American Newspapers offer unprecedented coverage of the people, issues and events that shaped this vital region during the 19th and early 20th centuries. Featuring titles from Argentina, Brazil, Chile, Cuba, Guatemala, Mexico, Peru, Venezuela and a dozen other countries, these resources provide a wide range of viewpoints from diverse Latin American cultures.

South Asian Newspapers, 1864-1922

This one-of-a-kind collection provides access to a select group of South Asian newspapers from the 19th and early 20th centuries. Featuring English-, Gujarati- and Bengali-language papers published in India, in the regions of the Subcontinent that now comprise Pakistan, and in Ceylon (now Sri Lanka), this online resource offers extensive coverage of the Indian Subcontinent between 1864 and 1922.

UNLOCK HISTORY.

For more information on this and other Readex collections, call 800.762.8182, email sales@readex.com or visit www.readex.com

Readex
A Division of NewsBank